

THE MASTIFF

1948

MRS. BONNIE BROWN

A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere - The only reward of virtue is Virtue;
the only way to have a friend is to be one -

From "Love"
By Ralph Waldo Emerson

Because of your genuine human kindness, your ever willingness to help others, and your love of the simple beauty of life, we the senior class of 1958 wish to dedicate this annual to you.

GREETINGS FROM PRINCIPAL

May I express my appreciation to the student body and especially to this senior class for your contributions to Lyons High School. This annual attests to the quality and quantity of work done by the students and teachers here at the high school. I certainly hope that as you go onward and upward you will continue in your intellectual growth as well as your social, spiritual and physical development.

Last Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1958, do bequeath to our successors:
First, all the good times we had during our so well-enjoyed Senior Year. Second, all the hard work that goes with being a Senior. Last of all, we individually leave the following personality assets:

- I, Frederick Alexander, do leave my ability to play football to Earl Collins.
- I, Linda Branch, do leave my brown eyes to Becky Yarborough.
- I, Ava Bullock, do leave my love for tall, big, handsome men to Linda Beecher, in hopes she will profit by it for I didn't.
- I, Alma Clifton, do leave my quiet ways to Ruth Cox.
- I, Geraldine Cook, being of undented mind, and undying faith in mankind, leave my stupidity of believing everything I hear to Sue Higgs.
- I, Frances Cooper, do leave my basketball position, warming the bench, to Metalis Jarriel.
- I, Jerry Craft, do leave and am proud of it.
- I, Juanita Davis, do leave to Janice Morris the ability to catch and hold a man.
- I, Kay Dickerson, do leave my love for Air Force guys to Kay Jones.
- I, Judy Anne Dolamore, do leave my ability to be president of my class to Frederick Brogdon.
- I, Estile Evans, do leave my precious typewriter where I found it; in Mr. Calhoun's room.
- I, George Fant, do leave my ability to attract the women to Jerry Scott.
- I, Fannie Mae Findley, do leave my natural cultured curly hair to my sister, Athena.
- I, Elwyn Grier, do leave my tractor driving ability to any member of the F.F.A.
- I, Peggy Griffin, do leave my loneliness and unhappiness during my Senior Year to Becky Yarborough.
- I, Larry Gossett, do leave my good physique and my barber's scissors to Robert McDilda.
- I, Peggy Harden, do leave my height to Joyce Kitchens in hopes she will be proud of it.
- I, Herbert Higgs, do leave my height to William Spivey.
- I, Deloris Holland, do leave the hours waited for the bus after school to Martha Brown.
- I, Lauren Holt, do leave my beautiful crewcut to Gene "Autry" Thompson.
- I, Thelma Hudson, do leave my black hair to Ruth Cox.
- I, Charles James, do leave my '57 Ford to Paye James because of her great desire to own one.
- I, Charlene Jarriel, do leave my love for brown-eyed men to Anita Cooper.
- I, Ray Joyner, do leave my ability to get out of hard classes to Hubert Sowell.

and Testament

- I, Annie Jo Kennedy, do leave my ability to get in trouble to Carolyn Phillips.
- I, Joyce Kight, do leave my loneliness during my Senior Year to Mary Sue Page.
- I, Raymond Landrum, do leave my ability to play football to Barry Jones.
- I, Kary Lumley, do leave my "shortness" to Charlene Harden.
- I, Dorothy McCumber, do leave my generous heart and optimistic attitude to my sister, Ruth.
- I, James McLain, do leave my height to Don Kight in hopes that he will be a big boy someday.
- I, Betty Morris, do leave my experience in making love to those who are capable of using it. (Mrs. Deen)
- I, Leslie Mosley, do leave my nickname "Smiley" to Mrs. Deen.
- I, Kermit NeeSmith, do leave my ability to play football to Robert McDilda.
- I, Martha Parker, do leave my Senior dignity and ability to giggle to Donna Youmans and Joyce Kitchens.
- I, Charles Parker, being of sound mind and body, do leave, maybe.
- I, Ronald Powell, do leave my class ring to Donnie Ray Hutchinson who has tried his best to get one.
- I, Florence Randall, do leave my love for singing to Audrey Williams.
- I, Junior Rogers, do leave my long legs and curly hair to Jimmy Humphrey.
- I, Leila Rountree, do leave to my sister, Mary, the ability to get along with anybody.
- I, Gwain Smith, do leave my love for ninth grade women to R. T. Stanley.
- I, Ronald Simpson, do leave my scientific knowledge to Elton Fields.
- I, Mary Spivey, do leave my dignity and quietness to Carolyn Powell.
- I, Kenneth Sowell, do leave my flat feet to Walter Stone and my bow legs to Bobby Powell.
- I, Wendell Stephens, do leave my curly hair to Johnny Dixon.
- I, "Tank" Thompson, do leave my ability to play football to my brother, Hayward "Little Tank."
- I, Jack Todd, do leave my dignity to Ronnie Smith.
- I, Peggy Vaughn, do leave my gray hair, obtained from studying so hard to graduate, to Carolyn Phillips.
- I, Emoline Whitfield, do leave to Melba Rountree, the ability to love one man and fool the others.
- I, Elsie Williamson, do leave my curly hair, complexion, and slender hands to Dorothy Brown.
- I, Shirley Williamson, do leave my happiness during my Senior Year to Mary Frances Kennedy.
- I, Emily Zoen, do leave nothing as I need to take everything with me.

Class Prophecy

On this night of May 20, 1968, the Lyons High School Graduating Class of 1958 is meeting at the Copa Cabana in Hollywood for a renewal of old acquaintances. It is their first meeting in ten years.

Stepping over the threshold we see Miss Florence Randall, famous opera singer on Broadway. Mrs. Irving Williamson (Betty Ann Morris) and Miss Emily Zorn, who hasn't found that certain someone, just arrived from Texas where they have been making their home. Charles James and Herbert Higgs are now the proud owners of the Piggly Wiggly Chain Stores in Dallas. Standing over to the left is Wendell Stephens who is now running for President of the United States. Conversing with Mr. Stephens is Mr. Estile Evans, who is running for Vice President. Frederick Alexander and George Fant are now the football coaches at the University of California. Now arriving is the great oil tycoon, who is growing richer everyday from his vast number of oil wells, Mr. Gwain Smith. Jerry Craft is now half-owner of the Kaplan's Dry Goods Corporation of Phoenix. Step aside, ladies and gentlemen, here comes the famous Fleet Admirals, Kermit NeeSmith and James McLain, of the South Pacific. Leslie Mosley, dressed in Air Force blue, has just arrived from one of his outstanding test flights around the world in 1½ hours. Mrs. Harold Wilson (Joyce Kight) has just arrived from Hawaii with her four lovely children. Frances Cooper, now the girls' basketball coach at the University of Wisconsin, is making eyes at Jack Todd who is the boys' basketball coach there.

Surrounded by photographers are Miss Peggy Harden, Miss Linda Branch, and Miss Ava Bullock, who have just arrived from Paris where they have been modeling the latest fashions for Mademoiselle Originals. Accompanying them in a gold cadillac with mink upholstery is Miss Geraldine Cook and Miss Peggy Vaughn, who are secretaries for Rockefeller Oil Company, Inc. Annie Jo Kennedy is now working for the Pacific Coastline Railroad in Washington. Dorothy McCumber and Shirley Williamson are content to be housewives, living in the beautiful state of Colorado. Martha Parker and Judy Anne Dolamore are now teachers at the University of Oregon; Fannie Mae Findley has just transferred there from Montana State College. Leila Rountree, Emoline Whirfield, Charlene Jarriel, Mary Spivey, Elsie Williamson, and Deloris Holland are tellers in the First National Bank in Las Vegas, Nevada. Over to the left we see the very outstanding missionary, Elwyn Grier, who has recently returned from the wilds of Africa. Telling of their breath-taking explorations to the North and South Poles are Commodores Ray Joyner, Ronald Powell, and Junior Rogers. Federal Bureau Investigators, Kenneth Sowell and Lauren Holte, have amazed the world with their magnificent shake downs of the underworld of crime. Professor Ronald Simpson has just discovered a new type of drug guaranteed to cure all ills. Mr. Raymond Landrum, coach of his and Mrs. Landrum's own Midget Football Team, has just arrived from their home in New Mexico. Mrs. Ray Smith (Kay Dickerson) has just flown in from Germany where she has been residing with Mr. Smith. The two most well known registered nurses in the huge state of Washington, Miss Alma Clifton and Miss Katy Lumley, have just arrived after assisting Dr. Charles Parker in the most tedious operation ever performed.

Mrs. Billy Poole (Peggy Griffin) and Miss Juanita Davis, the ever popular Broadway star of stage and screen, are just arriving. We owe this reunion to Mr. Larry Gossett and Mr. Tank Thompson (Leonard), owners of the Copa Cabana. These are the occupations and careers of everyone up to this date.
